SUBJECT: Major Activities During March - August 1958; Clerical Training

(1) A special project which was undertaken by the Assessment and Evaluation Staff/OTR and used, in part, by Clerical Induction Training was a "progress scale." This was designed as an aid in determining which trainees were unlikely to achieve Agency standards in typewriting and shorthand. Full use of the scale was limited at the request of the Office of Personnel; however, Clerical Induction training continued to maintain records of the trainees who would have been affected by its progress determinants.
